V. REPORTS TO THE CONFERENCE

A. Superintendent's Report Billy Still

Last summer, toward the end of July, one of my children asked me, "Dad, what do you do now that you are the Superintendent?"

I had just completed a couple of weeks of arranging the office to suit my taste, reading volumes of files and documents, hiring new staff, and didn't have a clue what I did. By default I began to provide a long list of tasks. I . . . The child was not impressed.

"Never mind, Dad," he said. "It doesn't sound very interesting." The truth is, it is very interesting. It just took a while to learn how to talk about it.

As I began to ask Chris, Sandy, and Doug what we do, they responded much like I did. They drug out long lists of tasks. It did not take long for us to acknowledge that we did not want tasks to define our call. Tasks are important. They must be done well, but they are only important if they are defined by a broader context. They are not to be the fuel that drives our lives.

After some discussion and experience, we decided that these are the primary reasons that our office exists. We are to: (1) Recruit, develop, and support leaders for the AMC; it's various churches and ministries. (2) Stimulate and manage change. (3) Search for Christ in distressing disguise.

Lives defined by tasks keep these kinds of things from happening. Tasks defined by these broader understandings receive new meaning and we are glad to see them carried out. Most of us find meaning and pleasure in doing tasks when we understand their larger purpose. Few find pleasure or fulfillment in completing tasks that do not lead us to clear goals or objectives. When our lives become dominated by tasks and are not centered in a prayerful vision they can become a "random series of incidents and accidents."

In my reading about leadership this last year I have found much that is valuable, but the most helpful word on leadership I have found can be distilled into this item: As leaders we must give ourselves to: (1) A call outside ourselves. (2) The strengths of others. (3) A great task.

I found these leadership principles exemplified at a Charge Conference this year. A small congregation is expanding their church building. During the meeting the chair of the building committee said, "Our pastor is a wonderful pastor. We want that to continue. We want him out in the community loving people in the name of Christ, caring for the poor, inviting people to join us. We need him to raise money Outside to help pay for all of this. We do not need him to organize the building project. That is not his gift. It is our gift. We know how to plan and build. He is allowing us to use our gift for the church and we are seeing to it that he uses his. It just doesn't make any sense for him to get all caught up in building details when all of us can spend our time doing the things we do well."

The pastor and congregation have recognized a call outside themselves. They have accepted for themselves a great task and they are giving themselves over to the strengths of each other. Accountable, but with no controlling agendas. It is instructive to note that their great task of building rises out of their other great tasks -- distributing over one ton of clothing and supplementing the early morning snacks in their local elementary school, welcoming their community into the church. .

It is no surprise to find out that they are growing rapidly, within the context of their community. They are well known, well loved, energetic, and it is a great joy to worship there. Their pastor is known to all as "Slick from Willow Crick."

It is also no surprise to note that we have numerous congregations in similar positions. We do indeed have several congregations who are practically turning people away on Sunday because there is no room.

Whatever the corporate body of the Alaska Missionary Conference does, it must facilitate the success of such churches as we help other congregations find their niche as clearly.

It seems apparent that some of the administrative and structural confines of the AMC will be different in the foreseeable future. This is to say that our relationship with the National Program Division will be different and this will make a significant impact on the life of our conference. This is due to the inevitability of their restructuring as well as ours. Much has been made about the fact that the "block grant" is being reduced each year by $5,000 and will not exist after the year 2000. This is a significant issue, but it is not a crisis. This grant will be $25,000 in 1996. In 1977 it was $112,000 and represented 60% of our budget. In 1979 it was 33% of the budget and in 1996 it will be just over 4%. Our primary source of funding beyond the local church is now found in VIM teams and the Advance. If you are involved in a ministry that requires funding outside of your local church, you must be prepared to go out and raise the money yourself.

Our historic ties to the NPD are vital, alive, and important. They are to be celebrated. They are not the key to our future. We must embrace a broader concept of missions that affirms all Christians as missionaries, respecting cultures while standing against popular culture in the name of Christ. This is true in Alaska, just as it is in Idaho, California, Mississippi, and New York.

It is true that we receive a significant amount of support from the NPD in terms of goods, services (moving expenses) and caring support. It is true that 28 churches have a difficult time standing alone. We remain grateful; like all United Methodists we are somewhat dependent upon and joyfully connected to the United Methodist Church as a whole. We rejoice in this because that is who we are: Christians, in the United Methodist tradition.

Change can be a good, exciting, positive thing, but it is only healthy for organizations that are proactive in moving toward the future. We must not simply sit by and wait to see what will become of us.

The truth is, I'm not worried about any of this and I don't believe many of you are either. I think we are energized by the prospects of it all, thrilled to see what the future will hold, and to find our place in it.

We have received a call from outside of ourselves. We are bold enough to believe that God has a unique place for us in proclaiming the gospel of peace, justice, and freedom in this Great Land. To be successful in this great task, we must give ourselves over to each other's strengths as we seek our place in this small corner of the world where we long to affirm God's reign.

B. Council Director's Report

Chris Spencer

Council Director training in Lake Junaluska in August initiated me into my new responsibilities and implanted on my brain that I am a change agent for our conference. This year has been a time for me to listen and learn what it means to manage change. In an exciting visioning session in Girdwood, members dreamed together about what their ministry would look like in the year 2000. At Hope Retreat Center members of the Kenai Regional Program Council named spiritual growth as their number one priority. Congregations in Seward and Unalaska visioned a new facility and parsonage. A new vision of Aviation Ministry became reality in the Northern Region. Everywhere God is at work in the lives of United Methodists who are visioning and becoming change agents.

The major task delegated to the new Council Director by last year's Annual Meeting was to look at "Vision 2000" as a possible program for our conference. I believe this is a vital and exciting program. The Conference Coordinating Council appointed an ad hoc committee to work with me. We agreed to package our own program and recommended using a portion of our Annual Meeting time together for visioning sessions. Several persons have been invited to help us make that happen. Local churches have been asked to pray for openness to God's prevenient grace, to study together the vision literature of the scriptures, to learn about change and the church, and engage groups of persons in the life of the congregation in discussions around questions relating to visioning. The results of our Annual Meeting will give us direction for the future. An anticipated outcome is the renewed vitality for each local congregation to define its own mission and set visions for bringing people to Christ, to church membership, and to deepened discipleship.

Day to day work needs to get done, too. Updating and distributing the video library listing, coordinating core interpreters' itinerations, participating in annual meeting planning, sharing resources, and working closely with Conference Coordinating Council and regional program chairs are a few of the tasks in which I have been involved. Although these are important and necessary, I will continue to listen and respond to those tasks that will help us do our central purpose, our core process. In these times of transition and adaptation, our focus will continue to be upon ways to serve God through our Alaska Missionary Conference.

C. Conference Coordinating Council

Betty J. Taylor, Chair

The Conference Coordinating Council met in November of 1994 and January of 1995 in extended sessions, offering their support and receiving reports from the Regional Program Councils, subcommittees, member program bodies, representatives of the General Boards, the Conference staff and our General Board of Global Ministries linking person.

Responding to mandates from the 1994 Annual Meeting, the Council:

1. Considered the feasibility of offering a five day Academy for Spiritual Formation. a decision was made to encourage individuals to attend an Academy outside of Alaska this year, then to reconsider offering an In-Conference Academy next year.

2. Evaluated using in our Conference the Vision 2000 program sponsored by the General Board of Discipleship. Proposed a revised program and plan to assist a visioning process in the Conference, beginning in the local churches and continuing during this year's Annual Meeting.
3. Brought about the formation of an AMC Russia Initiative Task Force, which will relate to CCC through the New Ministries Committee.
4. Set in motion ecumenical dialogue regarding the original Comity Agreement, seeking a contemporary view of partnership in ministry in Alaska.

Other action: The Council established a Personnel Committee comprised of the Conference Treasurer and chairs of the Professional Ministries Unit, Administrative Unit, and Council on Finance and Administration to conduct periodic reviews with the Conference Council Director, Administrative Assistant, and Financial Assistant. The Administrative Unit will recommend annual compensation for those positions. Requested that CF&A strike rule #9 which places conditions on the manner and timing of meetings of Conference administrative and program bodies, boards, and committees. We approved a three-day holiday model for the 1996 Parish Workers retreat, with a theme of Cross Cultural Communications in Alaska. We recommended to the Committee on Nominations and Rules that they select a chair for the Conference Disaster Response Committee and Communications Committee. The Council Director will provide the link to CCC for both committees.

D. Kenai Peninsula Regional Program Council

Thomas E. Myers, Chair

The Kenai Regional Program Council met during the fall of 1994 at the Hope Retreat Center to do some visioning under the direction of our Conference Council Director, Chris Spencer. Again the event helped to chart our course for the year and has given us hope for the new horizons that are before us.

HIGHLIGHTS:

The council has begun to support the Peninsula Pastoral Counseling Service operated by the Rev. Richard G. Pearson, M.S. The center is located in Homer. Rev. Pearson is a licensed Marital and Family therapist in Alaska and California, and is a Fellow in the American Association of Pastoral Counselors. The Kenai Regional Program Council is providing client scholarship funds and some transportation funds to enable an office to operate out of the Soldotna UMC once a week.

The Peninsula churches helped with transportation expenses for Dr. William H. Willimon's winter lectures at the Homer United Methodist Church on February 12 and 13. Registrations were mailed to all Kenai Peninsula and Anchorage Churches. Look for another exciting lecture series next winter at Homer UMC.

Our Regional Program Council came together to offer support to the Seward United Methodist Church after their tragic fire during the Christmas holiday. We raised the roof of the Soldotna United Methodist Church at our first all Peninsula "From the Ashes" event. Our dinner was catered by "Kitchen Express" of Kenai and music was offered by different Peninsula Church groups. $600 was raised for the Seward United Methodist Church's building fund.

E. Northern Region Program Council

Edie McCoy, Chair

Distance and weather continue to provide challenges to the work of the Northern Region Program Council. Our Fall planning meeting turned into a brief audioconference in the face of a series of snowstorms. Roy Katayama led the celebration in Nome while Alice Trost was featured in worship services in Fairbanks/North Pole and in meetings in Willow and Trapper Creek. North Pole and Fairbanks First youth groups are spearheading regional youth activities, including a retreat in February called "Hope for Broken Hearts". As part of the outreach concerns of the region, Fairbanks youth will again, this summer, participate in the "Project Paint" weekend to help local families. A team of three from the NRPC made a work project trip to Anaktuvuk Pass last summer, while in Nome the congregation received and hosted work team members in the spirit of the connectedness of our churches. The NRPC has warmly encouraged the outreach work of Hal and Julie Sheffer by providing cold-weather sleeping bags for their flying ministry. We were pleased to support the publication of poetry by Dee Dee Oden, and we continue to seek ways to support outreach to Anvik.

F. Southcentral Regional Program Council

Rose McLean, Chair

The SCRPC has met four times this past year. Officers are: Rose McLean-Chair; John Henry-Vice-Chair; and Dave Kober-Secretary. Nathan Henry is the youth representative. In September 100 persons gathered at Anchorage First for the Celebrate Mission Event. Each church shared their mission projects, we had a special program for youth, and heard from Roy Katayama who shared his experience in this area.

Under the leadership of Esther Vitt, we explored the idea of a regional singles adult ministries program. At the March meeting, we determined that we would not formally continue this venture as a RPC, but would encourage churches and individuals to participate when possible. We sponsored a regional Disciple Bible Study at Anchor Park under the leadership of Sharon Cooper and Dave Kober. It is going well and we are considering offering Into the World (Discipline II) in the fall. The second annual youth lock-in at the Alaska Club rendered 200 participants from seven churches. We plan to do this again January 14, 1996. We also had an excellent response to the Confirmation Retreat with 50 youth and seven churches participating. In addition to the previously mentioned plans for next year, we hope to be more intentional regarding marketing and leadership training.

G. Southeastern Regional Program Council

Jim Sutton, Chair

Previously, it was reported in the 1994 Journal how the Southeast Regional Program Council (SERPC) was preparing for our 1995 theme, The Year of the Youth. The youth met with the SERPC twice in 1994. Once at the spring meeting in Sitka, where they recommended the formation of a Southeast Regional Youth Council (SERYC) and again at the fall meeting in Douglas. At the fall meeting the youth had a sleep over at Northern Light United Church and made plans for 1995. They decided to hold their first meeting that would not be in conjunction with the SERPC at the Southeast United Methodist Camp in January of 1995.

Among the items the youth discussed were plans for the Youth camps in the summer. At our fall 1994 meeting we were invited to meet with the Camp Committee. After this meeting and after seeing how excited the youth were about outdoor activities we decided that both Youth and Outdoor ministries should be our focus for 1996. Because of the positive response we received from the youth we did not want to just drop them the following year. We needed to show them that we were truly committed to supporting them and that they were important and not just a one year event.

We also approved the plans for a lay speaker training event involving all the churches in Southeast to be held February/March 1995 with participants in the advanced course meeting together for the final session at Northern Light United Church. Details of this event will be provided in next year's journal.

The SERPC looks forward to finishing 1995 as the Year of the Youth and to further help them be involved on a regional basis and with outdoor ministries in 1996.

H. Administrative Unit

1. Church Location and Building

John Campbell, Chair

The Board of Location and Building of the Administrative Unit has assisted in plan review and approval for a number of local church projects during the 1994-95 year. These projects include: the proposed expansion of the Willow UMC during the summer of 1995; the completion of St. Paul UMC; the construction of a new parsonage for the UMC of Unalaska for the summer of 1995, the construction of a new church facility at Seward UMC to replace their building destroyed by fire; completion of the shower house at Birchwood Camp in June 1995, and the expansion of educational space for Aldersgate UMC in Juneau. Anchor Park UMC began exploring the possibility of a new educational building. They will wait for a new pastor before making any firm plans. Girdwood UMC is looking at the possibility of relocating and replacing their church facility in the coming years.

Mike Munn now serves as the Chair of the Board of Location and Building for the Administrative Unit. Inquiries and application forms can be received from Mike.

2. HMEP

After careful consideration of all of the possibilities for effective health benefits, the Administrative Unit recommends that the Alaska Missionary Conference change its plan from the current HMEP to the United Methodist HealthFlex Plan. The Health Insurance Task Force did considerable research and came to the same conclusion and made this recommendation to the Administrative Unit. If the Alaska Missionary Conference concurs with this recommendation there will no doubt be a transition time with lots of questions. With the help of the office of Health Benefits of the General Board of Pensions we believe that this transition will go smoothly and the end result will mean greater flexibility in our health benefits program as well as lower costs. We recommend the following:

- I. Participation in HealthFlex: The Alaska Missionary Conference (hereinafter referred to as the "Plan Sponsor") does hereby agree to participate in a cafeteria plan administered pursuant to the HealthFlex option of the Hospitalization and Medical Expense Program (hereinafter referred to as the "Plan"), which is administered by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits through its appropriate constituent corporations (hereinafter referred to as the "General Board").

- II. Conditions for Participation: the Plan Sponsor hereby agrees to follow the provisions of the Plan, the rules and regulations of the Plan which are from time to time adopted and revised by the General Board pursuant to the Plan, and the underwriting guidelines which are from time to time adopted and revised by the General Board for each of the programs administered by the General Board through the HealthFlex option under the Plan.
 - A. Effective date for the Plan shall be January 1, 1996.
 - B. Eligible participants will have an opportunity to choose between Options A, B or C effective January 1, 1996.
- III. Eligibility: "Employees" described in paragraph 3.02 of the Plan Document are eligible to participate in Health Flex, and
 - A. The following categories of "employees" described in paragraphs 3.03 and 3.06 are also eligible:
 - 1. Clergy persons of another denomination who are serving a local United Methodist Church pursuant to Paragraph 426.2 or 426.3 of The Book of Discipline.
 - 2. A clergy member of a conference who is appointed to less than full-time service in accordance with paragraph 437.2 of The Book of Discipline. A surcharge will be attached for persons serving less than 1/2 time.
 - 3. A local pastor of The United Methodist Church who is under Episcopal appointment and who is a "part-time local pastor" as that term is defined in paragraph 408.2 of The Book of Discipline. A surcharge is applied to this category.
 - 4. A lay employee of salary paying unit who is normally scheduled to work between 17 1/2 hours and 30 hours per week, 6 months or more per year, inclusively, and who has reached age 18 and who has been employed for at least 3 months of service. A surcharge is applied to this category.
 - 5. A lay employee of a salary paying unit who is normally scheduled to work 30 or more hours per week, 6 months or more per year, inclusively, and who has reached age 18 and who has been employed at least 0 months of service.
 - 6. A lay employee who has retired in accordance with the retirement policy of the salary-paying unit from which he/she has retired. The normal retirement age shall be the year in which the later of two events occur: (i) the year in which the employee attains age 65, or (ii) the year in which the employee has at least 5 years of service with the denomination.
 - 7. A surviving spouse and/or dependent(s) of active clergy participants.
 - B. But the above-designed lay employees are restricted to those employed by one of the following salary-paying units.
 - 1. Local Churches
 - 2. Units of the Alaska Missionary Conference
 - 3. Conference-affiliated United Methodist Institutions

3. Qualification for Advance Special Salary Support/Covenant Relationship

Those missionaries who qualify for salary support through the Advance shall:

1. Serve local churches with less than 200 members.
2. Serve local churches with budgets less than $150,000 raised locally excluding debt retirement. (For locations which qualify for COLA by Equitable Salary standards, the maximum shall be $150,000 plus the COLA.)
3. Serve local churches which are able to maintain a parsonage or housing allowance in the exceptional cases.
4. Receive a salary not more than 10% above the minimum cash base salary (before COLA and years of experience are added) established by the Equitable Compensation Guidelines set at the Annual Meeting. (Exceptions to this shall be the first five years of a new ministry and Native Ministries and crisis situations.)
5. Be recommended by the Equitable Compensation Committee approval by the Administrative Unit and the Conference Superintendent.

Conference Superintendent Billy Still, Bishop William Dew, and Conference Secretary Dennis Holway listen to Milo Thornberry's report on the Professional Ministries Unit

4. Trustees Mary Lou Hollett

The Trustees have been considering property that needs to be transferred to local churches or the Alaska Missionary Conference from the National Division. The following criteria was discussed as the guideline for property being transferred to local churches:

1. 100% apportionments paid for the last 2 years.
2. Church not receiving equitable salary compensation.
3. 100% Health Benefits paid for the last 2 years.
4. Current with any indebtedness.

I. Professional Ministries Unit

Milo Thornberry

The Professional Ministries Unit serves the functions of a Board of Ordained Ministry needed in a Missionary Conference. The work of the Unit provides supervision for candidates for ordained ministry, counsel for those considering the ordained or diaconal ministries, planning for the annual Clergy-Spouse Professional Church Worker's retreat, administering Continuing Education funds, reviewing the work of conference-related Campus Ministries and other matters related to professional ministry in the Alaska Missionary Conference.

This year, in addition to its ongoing work, the PMU has addressed two issues of considerable importance for professional ministry in this conference: First, a plan for "Clergy Sexual Ethics Training" for all clergy under appointment in the conference was adopted and will be presented to the clergy session of the Annual Meeting. Second, PMU has concluded that clergy membership is an important means by which the AMC can more effectively provide for persons to respond to God's call to ministry and to enable the development of Alaskan pastoral leadership. PMU has submitted a petition to Annual Meeting which it believes may eventually open the way for clergy membership in the conference.

1. Committee on Superintendency

Thomas Taylor, Chair

The Committee on the Superintendency is a subcommittee of the Professional Ministries Unit and has the overall responsibility of serving as a support group for the Conference Superintendent.

Another responsibility of the committee is to recommend various items in the conference budget related to the Superintendency. This year we reiterated our commitment to the formula for the Superintendent's salary, and refined it to read: "The Superintendent's salary shall be set at 133% of the average salary of the full-time pastors of churches in the AMC, as established by the most recent round of Charge Conferences."

Thus, the recommended Superintendent's salary for 1996 is 133% of the average pastor salaries for 1995, which comes out to be $41,126.

2. Board of Diaconal Ministry

Rose McLean, Chair

The conference Board of Diaconal Ministry provides a personal and professional support base for the diaconal minister, certified person, and persons in diaconal forms of ministry.

The two major responsibilities of the conference Board of Diaconal Ministry are: (1) Identification, enlistment, candidacy, consecration, and support for Diaconal Ministers, and (2) Identification, enlistment, completion of requirements, certification, and support for professional growth for persons in professional ministry careers of education, youth ministry, evangelism, and music.

Rose McLean continues her certification as Director of Christian Education and is completing her eighth year as Diaconal Minister at St. John UMC in Anchorage. Sharon Cooper who was consecrated June '94 as a Diaconal Minister is completing her second year on the staff of Anchor Park UMC in the areas of Christian Education and Music Ministry. Dennis Holway, pastor at Turnagain UMC continues his certification as a minister of Christian Education. Persons or churches seeking more information regarding Diaconal Ministry or certification should contact Rose McLean.

3. Registrar's Report

Rachel Lieder Simeon

This year four pastors serving in the Alaska Missionary Conference are currently assisting exploring candidates in the candidacy process for pastoral ministry. We also approved Bonnie Campbell of Unalaska UMC and Sailitai Maga of the Samoan Fellowship within the congregation of Turnagain UMC as candidates for ministry.

4. Continuing Education Funds

Dennis Holway

Following a review of the disciplinary provisions for the use of Ministerial Education Funds, the PMU has agreed these limited funds (up to $300/applicant) shall be available to ordained and diaconal ministers, and persons who are certified candidates and local pastors. Interested individuals should contact Dennis Holway for an application.

5. Compulsory Sexual Ethics Training for Clergy Serving in the Alaska Missionary Conference

Because we are now aware of numbers of people who are the victims of clergy sexual abuse and are seriously and sometimes permanently injured; because we now recognize the position of power a clergy person has in counseling and other interpersonal relationships and hence their vulnerability to the abuse of that power; because the credibility and witness of the church is undermined by such abuse; because the church is increasingly financially vulnerable because of such abuse; and because the Council of Bishops have called for the training of every UMC clergy person in clergy sexual ethics, we recommend the following as the minimum requirements for the training of clergy serving in the Alaska Missionary Conference:

1. That a minimum 4 - 6 hour training in clergy sexual ethics be required of every clergy person in the AMC, to be renewed at least once every four years.
2. That clergy currently under appointment who have not received previous training be required to undergo such training from PMU approved trainers within twelve months from the date of the adoption of this recommendation.
3. That an AMC team of trainers be established to provide in-Alaska training. The team should include a clergy person, an attorney, and a lay person, with attention paid to gender balance. This team should be prepared to offer two training opportunities a year. PMU will schedule training opportunities just before or after Annual Meeting or the winter retreat.
4. That persons in the process of application for appointment in Alaska be apprised that such training is required for appointment; and

- a. That prior to their appointment in Alaska, certification of their previous training be provided to the Superintendent by their conference Board of Ordained Ministry;
 - b. That if they have not had such training, that they be strongly encouraged to do so before coming to Alaska, either through their Board of Ordained Ministry or through the National Division;
 - c. That in the event clergy arrive in Alaska without certification of previous training, they will be required to receive training from approved trainers (see above #3);
5. That the PMU keep certification status records and report to the Superintendent twice a year. A member of the PMU will be appointed to receive and record certifications of each clergy's last date and place of training; and will send out notices of dates and locations of training in Alaska.
 6. It is recommended that clergy who do not receive training in the specified times allotted not be reappointed within the Alaska Missionary Conference.
- Adopted by PMU January 21, 1995.

I. Conference Council on Youth Ministries

Steve Lambert

The CCYM had a wonderful mission trip to Missouri to help rebuild homes from the Mississippi River Flood of 1993. We had 28 people on the trip with youth from 10 different churches of the conference. Despite the heat, dirt, and wasp stings the trip was a powerful testimony that in giving we receive. We are pleased that the CCYM is able to provide these kind of experiences for all the youth of the AMC.

During Annual Meeting of 1995, our '95 mission trip will be in progress to Mexico building homes for the homeless. In addition to the trip, the youth will be exposed to the beauty of the Southwest portion of our nation.

The CCYM was able to send at least one youth to the Jurisdictional Youth meeting last summer. We look forward to sending two or three Alaskan youth to the national gathering in Salt Lake City this summer. We were pleased that one of our Alaskan youths, Nathan Henry, was chosen for the Youth Institute at Chandler School of Theology for the summer of 1994. We hope that another will be able to attend the summer of 1995.

The CCYM led Senior High Snow Camp this year and offered major assistance to the Junior High Snow Camp. Both camps were a success with a total of about 90 youth attending the camps. Our guest speaker was Darrel Cluck, from Little Rock, Arkansas, who led the theme time on discerning God's presence and message in the context of secular music. Both camps ended with time at APU so that they might be exposed to this United Methodist related college. The skiing at Alyeska continues to be a major draw and source of enjoyment as the final event of our Snow Camp experience. During the worship service of the last evening of Sr. High Snow Camp, several re-affirmation of faith were made and 20 commitments to future service in mission ministries were made. We are busy with the task of forming and shaping the church of tomorrow in the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ!

CCYM youth delegates: Nathan Henry of East UMC, Janelle Snowhook of Douglas; Heidi Richert of Sitka, and Steve Lambert, CCYM Coordinator.

K. Historian's Report

Verda Carey, Conference Historian

The Conference Archives and History Committee is charged with collecting, filing and maintaining the conference archives and historical records. The conference archives and records are housed in the Douglas Community United Methodist Church in Douglas.

On August 4-7, we hosted the Western Jurisdiction's Archives and History annual meeting. The meetings were held on the A.P.U. campus. We worshipped on Sunday at the Seward United Methodist Church and had a delicious lunch at the Wesleyan Rehabilitation and Care Center. It is hard to believe that the lovely Seward Church was destroyed by fire in December. On the way back to Anchorage, we visited Portage Glacier and had a vesper service led by Superintendent Billy Still at the Hope Retreat Center. Many thanks to all who helped make the meeting a success.

During the year, we have reorganized the archives room and have added new shelving and files. The annual meeting journals are now stored in archival boxes. The 1995 meeting of the Western Jurisdiction's Archives and History Commission will be May 3-5 in Phoenix and the Third Convocation of the United Methodist Historical Society will be August 25-28 on St. Simons Island, GA.

We appreciate those of you who think "archives" when cleaning out office and/or church files. Material what you may not need to keep may just be material we want to keep!

One of our members, Sharon Brower, generated a demographic study of the Kenai Peninsula. We convened a meeting of Kenai area pastors to further discuss where United Methodist ministry on the peninsula is needed, and where it would be supported by existing United Methodist congregations.

Last summer we loaned the Hope Retreat Center Committee funds to upgrade their building, and obtain resident pastoral leadership.

We have met with, and provided funds for the flying ministry of Hal Sheffer, who is now visiting and holding worship services seasonally at Shell Hills, Skwentna, Lake Creek and Yentna Station. We gave leadership to approval of an Advance Special, to enable persons both in Alaska and in other parts of our denomination to support expanding the flying ministry in Alaska.

We have written each congregation in the AMC, asking that they consider connection with a "sister church" for mutual support and encouragement. Several congregations have responded, indicating they wish to be connected, or are already connected in this way. During the coming year, we will help all congregations of our conference become aware of ways they can assist with New Ministries within Alaska.

L. Alaska Christian Conference

Ann Janzen

The Alaska Christian Conference held its Assembly in Sitka February 20-22, 1995. It has been four years since the last Assembly because the 1993 Assembly was cancelled due to illness of the speaker. Dr. Michael Kinnamon from Lexington Theological Seminary in Lexington, KY, was the speaker; and he was indeed worth waiting four years to hear. His addresses spoke to the theme of "The Church as a Healing Community - A Theological Perspective". Workshops were held on Prison Ministry, Local Ecumenism, AIDS, and Mental Health. Reports were heard from the Prison Reform Task Force, Church World Service Disaster Preparedness representative, Bee Tindell, and affiliate groups. The Executive Board will meet during the next year, and another Assembly will be held in two years.

M. Outdoor Ministries

Jim Fellers

Many persons are asking, "What is all this talk about $1,000,000. to be received for outdoor ministries in the year 2000?" So that we might have it for future reference in the conference journal, here is the full text of the original donor's announcement:

Each Annual Conference with a Camp/Conference/Retreat ministry that is duly a part of the ministry of each Annual Conference when the National United Methodist Camp leaders meeting is held February 1-5, 1991, shall receive a gift of at least $1,000,000. February 1, 2000.

"Each Annual Conference desiring to receive this gift for its Camp/Conference/Retreat ministry shall ask and support the appropriate body charged with the Camp/

Conference/Retreat ministry for the Annual Conference to prepare a one page plan to use the gift commencing March 1, 2000.

"The gift will be delivered February 1, 2000, to the treasurer of each qualifying Annual Conference. The Treasurer will place the gift in the account of the Camp/Conference/Retreat body of the Annual Conference. The National Director of Camping shall provide the name, address, and telephone number of the Conference Treasurer in each qualifying Annual Conference. This list shall be sent to the representative of the donor by December 20, 1999.

"This gift is not a matching grant or a challenge gift. But it is suggested that each Annual Conference give prayerful consideration to a capital funds campaign beginning in the year 2000. What a heartwarming experience for United Methodists to begin a new century of ministry in Camps/Conferences/Retreats in this manner!"

The 1993 Journal reports the plan that was submitted to the National Director of Camping by the Outdoor Ministry Committee. There are no strings attached to the gift and the plan may be modified if necessary. This year the Outdoor Ministry Committee will have established a timeline for determining criteria for disbursement of funds to SEAUMC and Birchwood, and for gathering information to set priorities for the continuing income generated by this gift. There are many creative possibilities for empowering us to enable people, through outdoor ministries, to meet and follow Jesus Christ.

This year's agenda also includes: a review of legal/liability issues; the potential for cooperative camping with other denominations; setting standards for and promoting adventure camping; encouraging sites to move toward American Camping Association accreditation; an evaluation of the Hope Retreat Center; and, final approval of a Dean's Manual.

1. Birchwood Camp Board

Carol Seckel, Chair

Birchwood United Methodist Church Camp, located in Chugiak on Psalm Lake, continues to develop its ministry of hospitality through camping. By the time this report is received the shower house should be completed adding to the improvement of our facilities. Dave Kober, camp manager, provides valuable leadership to the Board and volunteers who work together to provide excellence in camping. It is estimated that over 6750 volunteer hours were given in support of the camp including deans and counselors as well as other volunteers.

From the annual report dated September 30, 1994 United Methodist users numbered 2453. Other groups utilized the camp 4565 user days, and Work Teams had 368 user days. Five established United Methodist Camps were offered during the year. This year work teams will be used to counsel at Intermediate Camp as well as to provide general maintenance support.

One of the main accomplishments of the year was the establishment of the Child Protection Policy. The process to develop the policy was very thorough and will be a continuing process in the life of the camp.

A Strategic Planning Committee is working to develop a multi-year plan for the development of the camp.

Special thanks go to Dave Kober for his continuing dedication to the camp. We wish him well as he marries Kim Goldsmith this summer and we look forward to having him return in the coming year.

2. Southeast United Methodist Camp (Argetsinger) Connie Thornberry, Chair

Summer camp 1994 increased in enrollment over past years with 113 participants. Three camps were held. The new community-wide enrollment was well-received and a Russian youth group were a positive addition to the 10-day youth camp experience. We are moving forward in developing plans and policies for safer and better camps. 1995 will introduce an additional camping opportunity called Youth Mission Institute with Alaska senior high youth working together in fellowship with youth and adults from other parts of the U.S. Christian education will include spiritual formation, theology of mission, discipleship and stewardship. Hands on local mission projects will be part of the experience.

What better way to get excited about camping than to break bread around the woodstove, share camp stories and fellowship with good friends. The camp board had an "Overnighter" at Meier cabin in sharing hopes and dreams for the future. From that experience came positive energy and real enthusiasm. Dreams for additional cabins, year-round use of the entire facility, cross country ski trails, are now forming into realities. In all our dreaming, planning, and building we are thankful for the VIM work teams who support and help, VIM individuals, and persons who have come at times when they were needed most. We feel especially thankful for Jay, Carol, Jeff, and Henry Wyatt for their hard work and faithfulness in managing the camp.

3. Hope Retreat Center By Lee Nelson

The center has had increased usage by individuals, families, and small groups and started the year in need of major maintenance. In the mid eighties only 12 reservations per year were recorded. 1994-95 had almost every weekend booked and many midweek visits also.

With a loan of $7,000 from the New Ministries Committee of the Alaska Missionary Conference and the time and talents of 25 individuals from North Louisiana Area United Methodist Churches, the center was refurbished and made ready for the increase in use. The work team was led Augie Aamodt and Reggie Skains. This skillful team, made up of builders, carpenters, electricians, painters, masons, plumbers and some of the best cooks in Louisiana completely renovated the historic church building. They sanded and stained the exterior, built a 30' x 20" deck, handicap ramp, front steps and landing, painted and/or stained the interior, sanded and stained the sanctuary floors, framed and protected the stained glass window with plexiglass, put a new window in the sanctuary, repaired pews, installed a new kitchen countertop, rewired and replumbed, insulated the basement, put a new roof and doors on the woodshed, and many smaller jobs. This team, I estimate, contributed at least $50,000 of transportation costs and talents to the Hope Retreat Center.

We are still collecting money to drill a well and put in a septic tank. For more information about the Hope Retreat Center you can call the Alaska Missionary Conference Office.

N. New Ministries Committee

John Tindell

What an exciting and eventful year this has been for New Ministries!

As a result of a petition to last year's Alaska Missionary Conference meeting, the committee, in cooperation with the Conference Coordinating Council, gave leadership to the forming of the Russian Initiative Task force. The Task force is active in enabling persons in Alaska to serve in a staging-training-orientation role for persons in our jurisdiction who wish to express ministry among people in the Russian Far East.

O. Native Ministries Committee

Mary Ann Warden, chair

The committee welcomes Dee Dee Odden, and Thomas E. Myers. This year the committee was able to meet with the New Ministries Committee where the Anvik Ministries was discussed. The Native Ministries met to decide how to pursue leadership for the Anvik ministry with Billy Still as the new superintendent. The Committee gave direction to the superintendent that a full-time minister may be the best way to give care to the people of Anvik. Nancy Felton gave us all an assignment of prayer for a minister to emerge in response.

When events started moving it was exciting to hear the stories. Allan Wintersteen, a retiring Bethel teacher and Methodist minister and his wife Teddy have answered the call to the Anvik ministry. The Committee also received a report from Greg Harrison from the Chickaloon village where Carol Seckel was able to be a minister and a friend. Greg shared that their dance group was invited to the Good Will Games in St. Petersburg in July. Thanks to Carol that ministry was possible. We thank Carol for her leadership and welcome Billy Still as the new superintendent. The Committee continues to encourage all committees to meet with them regarding issues that involves diversity in their communities.

P. Conference Secretary of Global Ministries

Ann Janzen

During the past year, there have been two major events that link Alaska Missionary Conference with the larger church in mission. September 2-6, 1994 the Conference Secretaries of Global Ministries for the Western Jurisdiction met in Alaska. They based themselves from Wasilla and visited, shared meals, and worshipped in churches from Willow to First Church, Anchorage. They also visited as many mission projects as could be reached and talked with Conference leaders, clergy, and lay people. They came to learn more about the Alaska Missionary Conference so that they can interpret our ministry and our needs throughout the Western Jurisdiction. A lot of work was done by a lot of people to make this event a success.

Again, a lot of people did a lot of work to bring about CELEBRATE MISSION: ALASKA on September 16-20, 1994. The Office of Cultivation Program Department, funded travel to Alaska for four of the Jurisdictional Field Representatives for this event. Every church was offered an opportunity to hear one of these speakers, and response was good for "a new thing". It is our hope that this event made us all more aware of our connection with Missions. We also hope that bringing the Field representatives to the Alaska Missionary Conference will help them to interpret our ministries and our needs throughout the United Methodist Church.

There is now a budget for the Conference Secretary to cover office costs and expenses for a trip to the annual meeting of the Conference Secretaries somewhere in the Western Jurisdiction. All we need now is a structure to relate this position to the Conference.

R. Hunger Coordinator

Douglas McCoy

"HEART TO HEART, HAND TO HAND" is the new Global Hunger Campaign of the United Methodist Committee on Relief - UMCOR. Every church has received resources for this campaign which features contemporary Christian music, poster/brochure, logo stickers, description of hunger campaign resources, and suggestions on how each person can raise their voice against world hunger. Central to the campaign is the realization that persons from around the world are sharing in the effort to eliminate hunger. Persons in Indonesia, Liberia, Guatemala, India, the United States, and nearly a hundred other countries are joining hands and hearts . . . giving and receiving . . . to ensure life's essentials such as food and water for every person.

Churches of the Alaska Missionary Conference are urged to: CULTIVATE interest in fighting hunger and its root causes through study and developing ideas to involve their congregation in a year-round hunger ministry; EDUCATE church members on why hunger exists and how we can fight it; and then MOTIVATE others to participate in anti-hunger efforts locally and world-wide; and finally, ACTIVATE your church's hunger response plan.

One of the important ways that the churches of our conference have responded is through support of the one Great Hour of Sharing and United Methodist Committee on Relief Advance specials. In 1994 twenty-four churches of our conference contributed through one or both of these United Methodist programs. A total of $8,877.65 was contributed by 18 congregations to the One Great Hour offering during Lent. These funds are used to provide immediate emergency response to disasters and human need such as earthquake, famine, and flood. Twenty churches provided "second-mile" Advance gifts to UMCOR, in the amount of $18,561.49, for specific projects in response to hunger, disaster or refugee resettlement. This represents almost $7.00/member given in love for the neediest in our world. Sometimes we are the givers . . . sometimes in need we stand. Let the gifts go 'round the circle heart to heart, hand to hand.

S. United Methodist Women

Barbara Dadd Shaffer, President

United Methodist Women are organized for mission in a way that helps them understand their mission in the world and to develop their skills and understanding and spiritual depth. It's a powerful and effective organization, the United Methodist Women.

In Alaska, at the end of 1994 there were UMW units in 21 of the 29 churches with a combined membership of 506, a small increase over the previous year. Memberships ranged from 8 to 72. Programs were extensive and as varied as the churches and the women in the units. The predominate ones were education and mission outreach. The conference UMW provides two very important programs for the local women. One is the Annual Meeting in October with a good program and officer training. This year the program will center around the 50th anniversary of the United Nations. The regional Mission Education Events center around the three mission study themes. The themes for the upcoming year are: Ecclesiastes, Europe and The United Nations.

T. Volunteers in Mission

Sandra Coon, Conference Coordinator

From Oklahoma to New York, Florida to Michigan, Volunteers in Mission traveled to serve in Alaska during 1994. Sharing their skills and resources the Alaska Missionary Conference hosted over 370 VIMs, and they in turn shared over $30,000.00, and countless hours for their work at our churches, camps and other projects this past year.

Many Alaskan youth and several adults reached out to others as VIMs also. A youth team traveled to Mexico, another to Arizona, and individuals to the Shalom Zone in Southern California and Kathy Starostka from Sitka traveled to Zaire and worked at a Rwandan children's refugee camp. Kathy hopes to return again this year.

With the loss of the sanctuary in Seward the connectional VIM system is taking on an even greater role as the Oklahoma VIM coordinator, Larry Acton, is overseeing the recruitment of six teams and support coordinators to rebuild the church during the summer of 1995. It is impossible to imagine what our conference would have done without this vital program supporting our needs over the past decade and longer.

The grass roots program of lay persons putting their faith into action for the benefit of others seems to be growing stronger each year, triggering a much deeper understanding of Christ's call to love one another and to go into all the world as servants to those in need.

U. Alaska Children's Services (ACS)

James E. Maley, Executive Director

1994 was an exciting year that brought many advancements to Alaska Children's Services. Efforts were made to continue improving the already excellent level of services to Alaska's youth.

A landmark was established by our Board of Directors with the formation of the PARTNERSHIP IN TREATMENT FUND. This scholarship program provides funding for those families in need of services but who have limited resources. In addition to providing initial seed money, the Board has specified that all denominational support will be allocated to the Spiritual Life Program and the Partnership Fund.

With the addition of a second staff person to the Spiritual Life Department, emphasis continues to increase. The Spiritual Life Director has become an integral part of the treatment program, providing chapel services, grief groups, and regular "Story Hour" to all students who wish to participate. Rev. Seckel was also invited to present a workshop at a national conference in Washington, D.C., and was invited to Magadan, Russia to provide consultation regarding children's issues.

Finally, ACS began intensive planning to develop aftercare services and will open our first therapeutic foster homes in 1995.

V. Nome Community Center

Douglas McCoy, Executive Director

EIGHTY-FIVE YEARS of service will be marked this year by Nome Community Center. With its beginning as the Lavinia Wallace Young Eskimo Mission, the Center is a "Covenant Partner" with the National Division of the Board of Global Ministries, a ministry within and relating to the Alaska Missionary Conference, and the recipient of federal and state funds to provide a variety of human services.

We are grateful for the support that has been given through the Alaska Missionary Conference this past year. As the recipient of the "Golden Cross Sunday" offering, a total of $542.30 was given and used by the Center's Food Bank program. The Conference United Methodist Women provided over $1,000 of support for the Young Teen Center programs. Teen Center gifts were also received from the Douglas congregation and the United Methodist Women of St. John UMC, Anchorage. In a time when both State and Federal funding for human services is being cut, the support from the church is crucial if we are to continue the kind of service which was begun by the church and that has been provided for so many years.

Provideniya, Russia, was the site of a two-village project introducing youth to small business operations and American democracy. A total of 18 Russians and 12 Americans participated in multiple exchanges between the two countries, which offered educational classes, entrepreneurial training and observation of the operation of businesses, health systems and governments. This project built upon the Native Youth Entrepreneurial training projects on NCC during the past five years. While funding for the Native Youth project is ending, a "School to Work" approach is being developed with the goal of becoming self-supporting.

Other projects of Nome Community Center include: XYZ Senior Center, Nome Adult Day Care, Family Support Services, Bering Strait Community Partnership, and the summer Community Employment Readiness Training.

W. Wesley Rehabilitation and Care Center

Richard W. Jones, Administrator/CEO

Annual report edited by Duane Chase, Chaplain and Board Member

This past fiscal year (1993-1994) has been a challenging year marked with change and improvements at the facility. During the year the facility became Medicare Certified. The process included a review by the Office of Civil Rights. We were the first facility in the state to undergo the new ADA (American's with Disabilities Act) inspection. The facility also passed inspection by both the State and Federal Surveyors.

During this past year the Upper Limits Lawsuit was completed and resulted in a $153,000 award to Wesley. The three appeals dating back to 1987-1988 were settled and Wesley received over $400,000.

The challenge continues with the State and the Medicaid program. Wesley has been operating on a temporary FY93 carryover rate. We are attempting to resolve the issues to establish realistic FY94 and FY95 permanent rates. The difficulties in gaining MRAC recognition of costs is not unique to Wesley. Every facility in the state has faced the same challenges and difficulties.

This has been perhaps the most unique year that I have spent at the facility. The change is primarily a result of the Board providing the opportunity for me to be the administrator of Seward General Hospital and Resurrection Bay Health Center in addition to Wesley. While there are many problems facing the Hospital and Clinic as well as Wesley, it provided an opportunity for the facilities to experience a new closeness which had not been achieved previously. I do not know how the relationship will turn out but the trial period has had positive results for both facilities so far.

The staff and I are very much aware of the support, professionalism and caring of the Board of Trustees. The progress is a direct reflection of the support and cooperation of the community, staff, physicians and Board of Trustees.

X. United Campus Ministry

David Moore, Director

We have seen tremendous growth this year both numerically and in individual lives. We have continued our mid-week worship service called Tuesday Vespers, our Bible study and discussion group called Thursday Lunch Bunch and a social activity every other weekend called Friday Night Fellowship.

Our Leadership Team has done a great job planning and organizing activities. Two of these events were our Christmas Party and a special night at Vespers we called "40 for Christ". This year we raised $150 to buy food, cooking necessities and toys for a family in need. Fred Myers and Kentucky Fried Chicken both matched gift certificates that we gave.

Later that same week about 25 students went to the Denali Center nursing home. We had a wonderful time singing with the residents, listening to their stories and wishing them a Merry Christmas. Afterward we went to a students home for fellowship, fun and food. It is good to remember the gift that Christ gave by giving it to others.

"40 for Christ" came about when we decided that it would be good to have a night that we encouraged people to come and try United Campus Ministry. We were hoping that not only brand new people would come, but also that many semi-active students would get more involved. Two of the students on our Leadership Team drafted a letter to go out to all those on our mailing list. The letter was a welcome back to a new semester and went on to invite students to our Vespers service, explaining that Vespers is a contemporary Christian worship service with singing, discussion and fellowship. The letter also encouraged people to stay after Vespers, eat some pizza and socialize.

Others on Leadership and some of those in the core group also got involved by putting up posters, and inviting roommates, classmates and friends. Including Clarice (my wife) and myself there were 39 people at Vespers, many of whom had never been to a UCM event or were only semi-active. A good number of these have returned and are becoming a part of the core group. Although we fell one short of our goal, this event is a constant reminder of the story of the lost sheep. We, as disciples, need to be constantly reaching out to those who have been wounded, to those who have wandered away from the flock and to those who have never known the good shepherd.

Y. University Community Ministry

University of Alaska Anchorage/Alaska Pacific University

Robbie Robinson, Chair

A significant change took place this year with the placement of a third-year seminarian from Duke University as the Campus Minister. Jonathan Coppedge-Henley attended classes, joined campus clubs and was involved in a wide variety of campus activities. He has been instrumental in conducting memorial services, prayer meetings, evening worship services, retreats, workshops, etc. Jonathan has done an outstanding job of interfacing with students, faculty and administrators. In addition, he preached at a number of area churches and spoke at several Sunday School classes. The success of having a seminarian cover both the UAA and APU campuses has prompted the UCM Board to select another seminarian for the forthcoming school year. Scott Kober, a third year seminarian from SMU's Perkins School of Theology will be interning on the campuses and at Anchor Park UMC.

Although the financial support has decreased during the past three years, the UCM Board is grateful for the significant funding received from the AMC and Anchorage, Central Lutheran Church, the Presbytery of the Yukon, First Christian Church, First American Baptist Church and friends. In addition, APU generously provided funds, office space and other support this year.

Z. Alaska Pacific University

Jonathan Coppedge-Henley, Campus Minister

Douglas M. North, President

The words which best describe Alaska Pacific University's relationship to the Alaska Missionary Conference and the United Methodist Church during the year are continuity and change.

The university has continued its active role in ardent support of the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry's 1993-1996 quadrennial focus upon "Campus Ministry: Mission at the Center: by maintaining and fervently supporting the Office of the Campus Minister. This office seeks not only to provide spiritual care and nurture for the campus, but also to enhance spiritual life through challenging the university community to integrate faith, scholarship, selfhood, inquiry, dialogue, and diversity into daily habits of virtue. The Office of the Campus Minister seeks to make available diverse worship and fellowship opportunities as integral parts of campus life. This on-going ministry provides educational opportunities to interdenominational and inter-religious dialogue.

At the same time, Alaska Pacific University has been in a period of significant leadership change. Douglas McKay North was selected as President by the Board of Trustees, and joined the campus in January, 1995 upon the retirement of F. Thomas Trotter. Within the first three weeks of his presidency, North had begun work to reenunciate the school's commitment to fostering in each student the competency to understand the self within the context of what is larger than self, and participated in the annual workshop for new CEO's of Methodist-connected colleges and universities. He has committed himself to continuing the strong connection between Alaska Pacific University and the local, national and global network of United Methodist involvement in higher education, and invites the churches of this conference to encourage United Methodist students to attend APU. Dr. North is interested in attracting students who are committed to "practical divinity" and has redesigned the curriculum to enable students to plan and carry out service projects as part of an individualized course of study.

The APU community wishes especially to salute Bishop Dew and the United Methodist Trustees of the university, and recognize them for their generous gifts of time, care, talent, and energy in the university's behalf.

X. Petitions and Recommendations

A. Adopted Petitions

Petition #1 - The AMC petitions the General Conference to change the first sentence of ¶36 to read as follows. The Annual Conference is the basic body in the Church and as such shall have reserved to it the right to vote on all constitutional amendments, on the election of clergy and lay delegates to the General and the Jurisdictional or Central Conferences, on all matters relating to the character and conference relations of its clergy members, and on the ordination of persons for the clergy and such other rights as have not been delegated to the General Conference under the Constitution.

RATIONALE: In order to strengthen the voice of the laity on the Board of Ordained Ministry, the Constitution of the UMC must be changed. Empowering the laity by sharing in decisions related to the representative ministry of the church will be a positive step toward lay-clergy relations.

Petition #2 - The AMC petitions the General Conference to change the first three sentences of ¶733.1 to read as follows: Each Annual Conference at the first session following the General Conference shall elect for a term of four years a Board of Ordained Ministry, consisting of not fewer than nine members, and two thirds of the members shall be ordained clergy members of the Annual Conference in full connection. One third of the members shall be lay persons who are members of the UMC and resident in the geographical area of the Annual Conference. Lay members shall have voice and vote on all matters before the board.

RATIONALE: Ministry is the way to describe the calling of all who follow Jesus Christ. One of the most important tasks given to the representative ministers of the church is to equip the general ministers of the church for their own ministry. Having a Board of Ordained Ministry with one third laity with full voice and vote will enhance the concept of the shared nature of ministry Petition #3 - The AMC petitions the General Conference to rescind the resolution, enacted in 1988, providing for a churchwide boycott of Royal Dutch/Shell.

RATIONALE: Apartheid in South Africa was the target of the action, and whereas the impact of Apartheid will long outlast the end of white overt rule, the need for the boycott no longer exists.

Petition #4 - The AMC petitions the General Conference to add the following statements to The Discipline of the United Methodist Church, (¶660). 8.a. Ordained clergy in full connection and in good standing with their Annual Conference shall not be required to be approved by the General Board of Global Ministries for appointment by a bishop to a Missionary Conference; these persons may, however, be classified as missionaries under the General Board of Global Ministries if approved by the Bishop, the Superintendent of the Missionary Conference, and the General Board of Global Ministries. 8.b. Spouses of ordained clergy appointed to a Missionary Conference shall not be required to become missionaries, but may apply for missionary status if they desire.

RATIONALE: WHEREAS clergy who are full members of an Annual Conference have satisfied their Annual Conference Board of Ordained Ministry "regarding physical, mental, and emotional health" (¶424) and also have been examined theologically in preparation for mission and ministry within the United Methodist Church; AND, WHEREAS ordained clergy are in mission when they are appointed by a bishop to serve a local church, to a position within the denominational structure, or to an institution; AND, WHEREAS thousands of dollars will be saved by affirming the rigorous leading to a full membership in an Annual Conference, thereby resulting in better stewardship of limited resources; AND, WHEREAS spouses of ordained clergy appointed to a Missionary Conference are not full participants in its life nor are they fully accountable to the Missionary Conference for their personal ministry.

Petition #5 - "Clergy Membership in the Alaska Missionary Conference" This petition was directed to the 1995 Alaska Missionary Conference. The Professional Ministries Unit is asking the Bishop of the Portland area to initiate conversations with Bishops and Boards of Ordained Ministry in the Western Jurisdiction, with the intent of developing "memoranda of understanding" by which the members of the AMC would be considered for appointment throughout the Western Jurisdiction when needed and asking those Bishops to take a greater role in recruiting clergy for service in Alaska.

RATIONALE: The AMC of the UMC is in need of a means by which it can more effectively provide a way for persons to respond to God's call to ministry. Conference membership will also enable the development of Alaskan pastoral leadership. Enlarging the area where effective members may be appointed will overcome the primary obstacle to full membership. The method of finding these appointments may already exist through the Ministerial Services Committee of the Western Jurisdiction.

Petition #6 The AMC petitions the 1996 General Conference of The United Methodist Church to adopt the covenanting proposal of the Consultation on Church Union, Churches in Covenant Communion: The Church of Christ Uniting, and (1) approve this text as the definitive agreement for joining with other participating churches in covenant communion, including the acts sufficient to enable it, (2) declare its willingness to enter into a relationship of covenant communion with the member churches of COCU and other churches which similarly approve this agreement and The COCU Consensus which is its theological basis, sealed by the proposed inaugural liturgies, and (3) begin to identify for itself such steps and procedures as may be necessary to prepare for the reconciliation of ordained ministries and for entering into covenant communion as set forth in this document." (Churches in Covenant Communion: The Church of Christ Uniting, p. v).

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the 1996 General Conference of the UMC entrust to the Council of Bishops, in cooperation with the General Commission of Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns, the guidance of the UMC and its various agencies at national, regional and local levels into the covenanting acts and relationships described in Churches in Covenant Communion including the steps and procedures necessary to prepare for the recognition and reconciliation of ordained ministries.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the 1996 General Conference of the UMC send greetings of grace and peace in Christ to the other member churches of the Consultation, offering prayers that we may all be one so that the world might believe.

XI. Financial and Statistical Reports

A. Conference Treasurer's Report

Susan Bickman, Treasurer

Doug Bradford, Financial Assistant

Thank you!! Thanks to all of you who faithfully forwarded your apportionments and supporting documents in a complete and timely manner. Thank you also for your patience with us this past year. This was a year of transition and change in the Conference Office, and more than once we had to spend additional research time, and our "walking resources" we had come to rely on had all moved on to other positions!! We appreciate your working with us through these times, and have enjoyed getting to know many of you better this past year. Don't hesitate to contact us with a question or concern!! Yours in Christ.

Those missionaries who qualify for salary support through the Advance shall:

1. Serve local churches with less than 200 members.
2. Serve local churches with budgets less than $150,000 raised locally excluding debt retirement. (For locations which qualify for COLA by Equitable Salary standards, the maximum shall be $150,000 plus the COLA.)
3. Serve local churches which are able to maintain a parsonage or housing allowance in the exceptional cases.
4. Receive a salary not more than 10% above the minimum cash base salary (before COLA and years of experience are added) established by the Equitable Compensation Guidelines set at the Annual Meeting. (Exceptions to this shall be the first five years of a new ministry and Native Ministries and crisis situations).
5. Be recommended by the Equitable Compensation Committee for approval by the Administrative Unit and the Conference Superintendent.

B. Guidelines for Parsonage Standards

Property Ownership: If a parsonage is provided, it should be owned by the local charge or a Board of Trustees of the Alaska Missionary Conference. Also, flexibility should be allowed so that a pastor and congregation can work out an arrangement whereby a housing allowance is provided in lieu of a parsonage.

The House: At least four bedrooms; a basement with exit where possible; house plan should be flexible to allow for differing size families; family room, at least two full bathrooms; adequate storage; large living room; adequate weather stripping and insulation; screens on windows that open; double garage, not necessarily heated; dining area suitable for family and entertaining; sit-down eating space in the kitchen; a wood stove would be a desirable feature. New parsonages should be handicap accessible.

Location: Preferable within walking distance of the church building, but not more than three miles away.

Furnishings: Household personal items should be provided by the parsonage family. Heavy furniture and major appliances in good working order should be provided by the church including: beds, tables, chairs, sofa, freezer, washer and dryer, refrigerator, dishwasher, disposal, chests and dressers, drapes, floor coverings, lawn mower where needed, fire extinguisher, smoke alarms. Painting (in and out), carpet deep cleaning, should be scheduled on a four-year basis or change of pastor.

Appliances and Furnishings Allowance: Each parsonage family shall have available to them $1000 each appointive year to be used at the discretion of pastor and parsonage committee for appliances and furnishings as listed above. In the first year of appointment, this amount shall be available at the time of arrival of the parsonage family where possible. The Trustees shall keep a record of the date of purchase and repair of all appliances, including the heating system, and of all painting and decorating, inside and out. The Superintendent shall ask for the Parsonage Report at the annual Charge Conference meeting.

Garage and Grounds: If possible, a garage shall be provided with adequate lights and electrical outlets and sufficient space for gardening and lawn equipment, bicycles, etc. This should be provided with easy to operate door. Any damage to the parsonage or grounds caused by any household pet shall be repaired or replaced at the expense of the parsonage occupants. Excessive damage, beyond normal wear, to the parsonage caused by the parsonage family shall be repaired, replaced, or paid for by the pastor.

Maintenance Fund: A revolving fund of $1000 shall be available for maintenance repairs and upkeep as authorized by the trustees. For most churches, this should be a trust account drawn on when needed, not necessarily budgeted in full every year.

Insurance: Replacement value of the parsonage should be the guide for insurance coverage. Insurance on the pastor's personal items should be provided by the pastor.

Parsonage Committee: The PPR Chair, the Trustee Chair, the Pastor and family shall meet at least once annually to review parsonage needs and existing conditions.

Utilities: Full cost of utilities are to be provided for each parsonage, when the pastor lives in the parsonage.

An Encouragement to All: We recognize that comfortable surroundings in the home contribute to the happiness, health, and effectiveness of the parsonage family and the pastor in their work for the whole church. We encourage that each parish will do its very best in providing such a home.
